

Protocol Financial Psychology Institute Europe

Independence
Respect
Reliability
Integrity

The pillars of the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® activities are: Independence, Reliability, Respect and Integrity. The aim is to improve the financial self-reliance of individuals, to remove obstacles that affect financial health and to promote the well-being. The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® works from her mission, vision and core values and from it's own research & research that we share with related partners. The pillars of the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® as well as knowledge, mission, vision and interventions are shared worldwide in order to promote the financial health of society. The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® is open to everyone. The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® does not work exclusively for 1 party which guarantees the independent position.

Conditions for Cooperation:

The general terms and conditions of the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® apply to all assignments and collaborations. Prior to a collaboration and / or assignment, the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® checks on the following points:

The client / collaborating partner / customer endorses the collaboration, mission and vision of the Financial Psychology Institute Europe®

1. Independence:

- a) The client has no influence on the results of a study commissioned by the Financial Psychology Institute Europe®
- b) The cooperating party / client has no influence on the communication messages, conclusions or methods used

2. Respect

- a) The techniques from Financial Psychology should be performed with respect for people and society and the autonomy of the individual
- b) The client / collaborating partner respects national and international regulations

3. Reliability

- a) The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® only works with reliable parties and may request a VOG
- b) The cooperating party / client / customer will not use the interventions, advice etc. provided by the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® for misleading purposes

4. Integrity

- a) Collaborating parties and clients must act with integrity, endorse the policy of the Financial Psychology Institute Europe® in this respect and observe the regulations.
- b) The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® is transparent about the partnerships
- c) In the quotation process with collaborating partners / clients, agreements are made regarding the division of roles, expectations, assignment and collaboration.
- d) The Financial Psychology Institute Europe® retains intellectual property over all its services.